

UV-complete gravity as AID theory

Alexey S. Koshelev
CMA-UBI
Universidade Beira Interior
Portugal

In my talk I will explain that AID (analytic infinite derivative) gravity theory is unitary, renormalizable, free of known singular solutions of GR and tends to be totally singularity-free. On top of this this model dictates inflation parameters modification, in particular of the consistency relation, and the consequences for observations will be discussed.