

Some effects of modified gravity

Elena V. Arbuzova
Department of Higher Mathematics,
University "Dubna"
141980 Dubna, Russia

It has been shown that in systems with rising mass/energy density high frequency oscillations of the curvature scalar are excited. These oscillations have a strong impact on gravitational instability of the system and on cosmological baryogenesis inducing interesting new phenomena.