

The Landau-Ginzburg theory of Dark Matter

Philippe Brax
CEA Saclay
France

We present new results on self-interacting scalar dark matter. In particular we argue that the resulting structures in hydrostatic equilibrium cannot exceed a size of a few tens of kpc. This can be achieved for dark matter particles on masses larger than a few eV's.