

THE LEGACY OF THE ROSENBERG FAMILY: HISTORY AND RECOVERY OF NAZI LOOTED ART

Marianne Rosenberg speaks about her grandfather, Paul Rosenberg, the legendary art dealer of Picasso, Braque, Léger, Matisse, Laurencin, and many others for whom Rosenberg brought international acclaim. It is also the story of the Gestapo occupation of the celebrated gallery on Rue La Boétie in Paris during World War Two, of the Nazi looting of more than 400 works of art, and of ongoing restitution efforts.
